From the Editor – Ryan Perrin

Well, this is an interesting change for me, as it's my first time editing a newsletter. I would like to thank Sallie Ketteringham for her amazing contribution to the theatre in keeping The Marloovian running so smoothly, and for keeping our members and patrons up to date. I'll try to do my best to keep to the same level of quality as the newsletter has been in previous years. Before I forget, if you're interested in directing a show at Marloo, we're currently taking expressions of interest. Please see the back page for more information.

All the best – Ryan.

From the President – Rob Warner

Well at last we are back on stage.

Thankfully the Coronavirus hasn't had the same result in WA as the rest of Australia. We are still under strict guidelines, but the recent decisions to allow more seating in the theatre have allowed more seats to be sold although we are only allowed 60% seats to be sold, for social distancing.

The committee would like to thank all our members for the support during these trying times. Congratulation to Iain Martin and Sally Ketteringham on receiving life membership. Thanks also to John Hall our bar manager who for health reasons has decided to stand down. If you are interested to take on the role please contact myself or Iain Martin for more information.

See you at the theatre – Robert.

From the Production Manager – Shelly Miller

I am delighted to announce that I have been voted in as the new Production Manager for Darlington Theatre Players. Following in the footsteps of Amanda Minutillo will not be easy as she has always been a guiding hand in the organisation of the shows and the Production Committee here at Darlington Theatre Players. I would like to thank Amanda for all of her years of hard work, good advice and dedication to the role and I hope that I can do it justice.

I would like to also thank Richard Hadler for his term of service on the Production Committee. He was always great for an opinion and a laugh! I would like to welcome our newest members of the Production Committee, Sophie David and Locklen Falkingham. Together with Taneal Thompson and Ryan Perrin, (and co-opted members George Boyd and Lesley Sutton) we aim to continue bringing quality shows to our beloved theatre.

This last month or so has seen the return of Wife After Death rehearsals with gusto. Thanks to George and his team for his hard work on the set and to Rob Warner, his team and of course his actors for their efforts in turning the lights back on after the Dark that we have been in during COVID-19 times. Rehearsals are well under way and this is shaping up to be a strong show, with tickets selling fast. With the news that we can run at 60% capacity now for our audiences, extra tickets were released, but these are also selling like hotcakes! Show dates are 13-28th November.

This past month has also seen the final casting of Robin Hood, (directed by Guy Jackson, with musical direction by Chris McRae), announced after a very busy couple of audition days, with about 78 people auditioning! It was a tough decision-making process, resulting in a cast of 37, bringing in more new people into our theatre family. The first reading has been undertaken and rehearsals have started, making use of the Swan View Youth Centre once again. This wonderful Pantomime will be on in February next year.

It is exciting to have our theatre world opening up again, but remember to stay safe everyone. Remember:

"Even the darkest night will end and the sun will rise"
Victor Hugo - Les Miserables
